

Definition of carers:

Carers are relatives, friends or neighbours who look after someone who cannot manage without help, because of sickness, age or disability.