

Messages to the National Programme for Information Technology

A decorative border composed of overlapping blue geometric shapes, primarily hexagons and pentagons, in various shades of blue, framing the central white space.